GRAND JURY PREPARED FOR CONTINGENCIES

Gets Permission to Virtually Remain on Duty Until July 1

TO WATCH FOR FRAUDS

Movement is Explained by Grand Jury in Petition to Court

By asking for its continuance as a grand jury until July 1, the May grand jury established a precedent in Washington county and the state that will probably live. By unanimous resolution of the members of the jury and presentment to court the jury was not finally discharged. The members will remain at a grand jury subject to a call to duty at any time up to and including July 1. Charles O. Frye, of Charleroi was the originator of the idea to have the grand jury remain in session.

This action, judging from the resolution passed, is done for the purpose of having a grand jury ready for a call should anything arise for calling the members together at the coming primaries or in the matter of expense accounts that may be filed following the primaries.

Judge McIlwaine, in receiving the request, said that it was the usual custom to call a grand jury together for the term and when it had completed its work to finally discharge it, but that a grand jury could be summoned at any time should something arise to occasion the summoning of a grand jury. The court said further that it could see no reason why the grand jury could not be kept together until the August term, subject to a call for duty at any time.

The court jokingly told the members of the jury that they could not be paid for any time, except when they were on duty. They were therefore discharged subject to the call of the court, the court remarking that it did not know of anything that might occasion their coming back, but probably the jurymen anticipated something, or they would not have made the request to the court.

The resolution of the grand jury is as follows:

To His Honor, Judge J. A. McIlwaine: We, the grand jury of Washington county, in due and regular session, beg your permission to represent:

FIRST, That it is of vital interest to the state; to the public morals of the citizens; and to the good name of all candidates for public office, irrespective of faction or political affiliation, that all election laws be strictly adhered to in the conduct of our elections and that every crime committed in connection therewith should be discovered and the offenders adequately punished.

SECOND, Such heinous crimes are committed secretly making it difficult for well-intentioned officials, candidates, and citizens to discover and suppress them. It therefore becomes the duty of the state to place every device in its power at the disposal of the people and held ready for immediate use in order that such crimes may be prevented or punished; and in order to remove unfounded suspicion from innocent parties. THIRD, We believe the inquisitorial powers of the grand jury will greatly assist in this behalf and that they should be available at every election and for a reasonable time thereafter so that all election accounts may be filed and published during its session. Therefore if it pleases your Honor we have unanimously agreed to establish a worthy precedent, upon the completion of our present duties, by extending the term of this grand jury so that its legal existence shall not be impaired or extinguished until the first day of July of this year; that it shall not be assembled during such time except by the order of your Honorable Court but may be dismissed on or after said date by your Honor without further appearance in court.

By order of the grand jury of Washington county.

ROOF GOES WITH WIND

Damage Reported as Result of Storm of Tuesday

GLASS PLANT SUFFERS

That Charleroi is built on a substantial foundation was shown when stock was taken today of the damage done by the severe windstorm and rainstorm of Tuesday evening. The worst damage done was at the plant of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass works, where a roof was blown off. The cross on the spire of St. John the Baptist Russian Orthodox church was taken off as neatly as though it had been chopped from its base. On Monday night during the storm one of the windows in Leon Depasse's bakery on Fallowfield avenue was wrecked. Rose bushes and trees over the town were some damaged and a little trouble was reported to telephone and electric lines. Electric arc lights over the town were out for some time on Tuesday evening as a result of the storm.

TARENTUM KNOCKS HOLE IN WATER COMPANY'S RATES

Water rates for the new municipal water plant of Tarentum have been established by council there at $2.25 a quarter for each 7,500 gallons. There is a graduated rate for all water used over that amount, 10 cents for each 1,000 gallons being charged for all water in excess of 13,500 gallons in any one quarter.

The fixing of rates comes in the face of the petition of the Allegheny Valley Water Company filed with the Public Service Commission, in which it seeks to restrain the municipal plant from operating. Allegations were made that the object of the municipal plant was to quote "unreasonably and disastrously low" rates, for the purpose of bankrupting the Allegheny Valley Water Company.

WORKING UP ROADS DAY ENTHUSIASM

Meeting to be Held Tonight by Interested Ones at Rooms of Business Men's Association-- Ribbons to be Worn Enthusiasm in the movement for the observance of Good Roads day in this immediate vicinity is being worked up by individual members of the various committees today, in anticipation of the general meeting of interested ones to be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the rooms of the Charleroi Business Men's Association. At tonight's meeting definite plans will be laid for getting to work on the roads on May 26, the day set apart in Washington county.

At the first general meeting on Monday evening, the advertising committee, of which D. R. Hormell is the chairman, was instructed to procure ribbons to be given out to those who will promise to work on the roads on May 26. These ribbons are now being prepared and will be given out as soon as possible to be worn until Good Roads day.

It is the expectation that May 26 will be a part business holiday in Washington county. Business men are interested in the movement and many of them say if necessary they will close down their business houses in order that work on roads may be done.

HAS TRIPLE MISFORTUNE

Son of Leon Depasse Dies, Window is Broken and Horse is Killed

Leon Depasse, the Fallowfield avenue baker, has been a victim of ill luck during the last several days.

His son, Albert Depasse died several days ago very suddenly at Sistersville, W. Va. Grief over this blow has not become tempered until other misfortunes began to happen.

During the wind storm of Tuesday night a large window in the front of his store near Seventh street was blown in. That only preceded worse misfortune. Tuesday afternoon his team of horses became frightened, and having been untethered apparently by some mischievous boy from in front of the store, they tore down Fallowfield avenue at runaway speed. Between Eighth and Ninth street they ran into an express wagon with the result that the leg of one horse was broken so that it had to be shot.

Killed In Vesta Mine

Walter Bingle, of California, Meets Sudden Death Under Mine Cars

Walter Bingle, aged 25 years, engaged at work at the No. 4 mine at California was instantly killed Monday night by being run over by several motor cars in the mine. He was riding on one of the cars, and in jumping off was caught and run over by the cars and badly crushed.

Mr. Bingle was one of the converts in the revival services held at California recently, and last Sunday he and Mrs. Bingle were taken into membership in the Methodist Episcopal church at California. Mr. and Mrs. Bingle had only been married about a year.

LOOM FOR DIAMOND

Work of Fixing up Ball Park Begins in Earnest Today

CIRCUS LEAVES MARKS

Today is another loaf day for the Charleroi team of the Pennsylvania West Virginia league. The team was to go to Uniontown this morning to play a game this afternoon with Paige's team of the league but wet grounds necessitated a cancellation just as the Charleroi lads were waiting for the train.

What the circus of Tuesday did to the Charleroi ball park was a plenty. The infield was cut and the whole ground was more or less mutilated. It would not have been so bad had not the hard storm of the evening come. Then the ground was flooded and with the continual tramping it got, the result can better be imagined than told. However President Wreath professes himself to be satisfied, because of the good attraction furnished.

Twenty-five tons of loom arrived today from Speers to be used on the infield. It is being located at the park today and being smoothed out in order to put the grounds in shape for use as soon as possible.

There will hardly be any game tomorrow. President Wreath had taken on the Pittsburgh Independents for a game, after arranging for two games the fore part of next week with Fayette City, but for the second time it has been necessary to cancel with the Independents.

On Friday afternoon a game is scheduled with St. Jerome's Lyceum team of Charleroi. On Saturday the Monongahela Independents, composed of some of the best material in the Monongahela valley will be here for an exhibition game.

The first of the Fayette City games will be played at Fayette City on Monday and the second at Charleroi on Tuesday. These contests will be

Hundreds of Visitors Come From Up and Down Valley

TWO SHOWS ARE GIVEN

Rain of Evening Dampens Ardor But Does Not Spoil Show

Drawn here by the beaming skies of Tuesday morning and early afternoon, one of the largest crowds that has been in Charleroi for months came on Tuesday afternoon for circus day. Barring the annoyance caused by the severe storm of early evening and the mud occasioned thereby, the day was one of much enjoyment. There was a lack of disorder that spoke well for the town and the Hagenbeck-Wallace Shows which appeared in all their newness of equipment and variety of acts for two performances.

Crowds came early and stayed late. In the afternoon it was estimated by the show people themselves that there were fully 6,000 people in the main tent to watch the big performance. In the evening there was a big crowd in spite of the mud and rain.

The Hagenbeck-Wallace shows have been the most consistent and regular visitors in the way of circuses to Charleroi and every year they show improvement. This was honestly true of them on Tuesday. New acts that had never been seen before under a big tent were witnessed and old ones that were rejuvenated and made just as enjoyable as ever were featured. There was a striking cleanliness about the shows and in the acting that made friends for the big concern. The trapeze work was especially good, but as a matter of fact it would be impossible to pick out one act that was really better than many others. The side shows got their share of the attendance.

The Hagenbeck-Wallace shows came here from Uniontown, and left for Greensburg. They suffered little from the severe storm. The sideshow tent was blown down, but outside of the inconvenience caused the showmen, this was regarded as of little importance.

A CAT LICENSE BILL.

There is pending in the Massachusetts Legislature a bill levying a license tax on cats and controversy on the merits and demerits of the cat is raging red-hot throughout the State says the Pittsburg Dispatch. There are two main counts in the indictment against the cat, one for the country and one for the city. These are that in the country cats kill birds, hence have fallen under the ban of the Au-dubonites, and that in the cities and more closely populated districts they spread disease. The anti-cat faction skeptically scorns the claim that the cat, by destroying mice and rats, checks disease spreading by that means and renders valuable service to humanity in protection against damage by rodents.

The Boston Animal Rescue League
comes nobly to the rescue of the cat, officially endorsing its rat and mice catching record and asking whether the prospective cruelty of cats being hunted to death is to be tolerated.
Dogs, it is pointed out, are harbored despite the license law until around license time, and the dog catcher works only a few months.

Licensing cats would be a much more difficult matter, involving a house to house canvass, unless, perhaps, the cat catcher worked at night exclusively. Cats, moreover, are assumed to be more particularly feminine pets and the proportion of women in Massachusetts suggests a corresponding increase in the ratio of fe-mines to population. This is evidenced by the fact that most of the defenders of the cat in this controversy are women. If a heartless legislature dooms the cat to license or death, Boston may see a new tea party.
Massachusetts women, who have no inclination for the ballot may discover an urgent need for it to save the cats.

VOTERS TO HAVE THEIR SAY.

With the closing of the polls next Tuesday evening the most remarkable primary contest in the history of Pennsylvania politics will have been fought.

The voters for the first time will have expressed their preferences on every candidate in the field from the several candidates for United States senator down to county committe-men. In that near-to-the-voter method the several parties will have their several candidates and immediately after the primary contest lines will be drawn by the parties for the larger and more important battle for the election.

The indications now are that Senator Boise Penrose will be the Republican nominee for the place he now holds in the United States senate.
He has gone to the people and talked personally with them. He has contended only for Republican principles and policies and he has been received in every section of the state with enthusiasm and assurances of support from the voters. G. M.
Brumbaugh, head of the Philadelphia schools, and an education of note, the Republican candidate for governor, is without opposition and will be unanimously nominated.

Under the existing conditions the Republican party was never in better form for a fight at the polls. Republican voters generally are in harmony with the regular Republican organization and the demand for the return of the Republican party to power in this state and the nation was never more pronounced.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

This is the time of year when mere man daves not plan any fishing trips or perhaps for visits of any kind for his own self enjoyment. If he does he is just as likely as not to get into difficulties, for there is always duties awaiting him at home.

said to another the other day.
"Can't do it—I have some screens to fix," dolefully complained the other who wearily dragged himself away to his regular spring work.

The Pennsylvania Suffrage association is opposed to pockets for women and tells why as follows:
Because pockets are not a natural right.

Because the great majority of women do not want pockets. If they did they would have them.

Because whenever women have had pockets they have not used them.
Because women are expected to carry enough things as it is without the additional burden of pockets.

Because it would make dissension between husband and wife as to whose pockets were to be filled.
Because it would destroy man's chivalry toward woman if he did not have to carry all her things in his pockets.
Because men are men and women are women. We must not fly in the face of nature.

Because pockets have been used by men to carry tobacco, pipes, whiskey flasks, chewing gum and compromising letters. We see no reason to suppose that women would use them more wisely.

GRAND JURY RECOMMENDS HOME CHANGES

The grand jury, following its visit to the County and Children's homes Tuesday made some recommendations that are considered important.

The grand jury, in its opinion, believes that the fire protection at the County home is entirely inadequate.
It finds the facilities for fighting fire for what they should be and the means of escape on the part of 100 helpless inmates hazardous.

The jury recommends that automatic closing fire proof doors be installed at every opening to the stairways in the rear of the building, designed and used as a close escape. It was the opinion of the grand jury that with these fire doors and the brick walls between wings of the building that fire in one wing could be kept from another.

The jury was also of the opinion that much better facilities could be put in for escape from a fire or the getting out of the inmates by the use of incline planes. The fire escapes they found narrow and such that they would not permit any one to return or, them to make a rescue, where they being used as an exit from a burning building.

The jury found the County home in as good condition as its construction and age will permit, except that paint is needed in the men's dormitory.
The jury commended the poor board for the new green house and for entering more extensively into gardening, so as to supply the inmates with home produce. It was recommended that this department be more extended and that more fruit trees be planted near the buildings.

The excellent condition and the good management of the Children's home was commended; also the care and instruction given the children.

FORMER WASHINGTON COUNTY WOMAN DIES IN PORTLAND, ORE.

Word has been received from Portland, Ore., by relatives here of the death of Mrs. Anna E. Kern Greenlee, wife of the late Lewis Greenlee. Mr.
Greenlee was a lifelong resident of this county but after his death Mrs.
Greenlee removed to Portland, Ore-residence she died from the infirmities of age a few days ago.

Born on July 1, 1820, at Taylorstown, Washington county, she was the youngest of the nine children of James and Elizabeth Kerr. They removed to Carmichaels, Greene county, where in 1842 she married Lewis Greenlee. In 1858 they came to Washington county where they remained until her husband's death in May, 1902.

Of the three children born of this union, two survive, James C., of Portland, Oregon and Mrs. Virtue P. Jenkins of North Avenue, Washington.
One daughter, Mary died in 1893. Two grandchildren also reside in Washington county, Mrs. Luella Ailes of Charleroi and Mrs. Frank R. Hall of Washington. Seven grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren live in or near Cincinnati. One grandson, Roland Taylor, lives at Jamestown, N.
Y., and one, Raymond Jenkins, lives at Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.

She was a devoted member of the Methodist Episcopal church and was particularly interested in the work of foreign missions. She was, all her life interested in the training of children, especially of girls for domestic life.

Mrs. Greenlee retained her faculties to a remarkable extent being able to write letters, read, sew and knit until within a few months of her death.

DR. TEMPLE'S INCONSISTENCY

The enrollment of voters in the Twenty-fourth Congressional district, consisting of the counties of Washington, Beaver and Lawrence, shows 26,582 Republicans and 3,833 members of the Washington party enrolled and entitled to vote at the primaries.

Those voters who have enrolled as Republicans have done so, because they believe in the policy and principles of the party, and desire to elect officials who will support and sustain the party and its governmental policy. The remarkable increase in the enrollment of Republicans and the resultant decrease of all other parties, indicates that the voters of the Twenty-fourth Congressional district are not in sympathy with the destructive low tariff policy of the present administration, or the selfish, office-seeking policy that dominates the Washington party.

The present member of congress from this district, Dr. H. W. Temple, is an open and avowed supporter of the Washington party and is seeking, not only the nomination of the party to which he belongs, but has the audacity to ask that the Republicans of the district make him their nominee, and help him secure the office he desires.

Why is he seeking the Republican nomination?

Not because he believes in the party, or those principles for which the party stands.

Not because, if elected, he would ally himself with, and support the measures advocated by the Republican party.

Not because he is in sympathy with the traditions, and the wonderful things done for humanity by the party in the past years of its existence.

No, it is not for any of the above laudable reasons that Dr. Temple seeks the Republican nomination. His whole course while a present member of congress has been to oppose the Republican party and to obstruct, hinder and decry the party at every opportunity.

As proof of his feeling and attitude toward the Republican party, at a meeting of the Progressive congressmen held in Washington, D. C., on December 16, 1913, a resolution fathered by Dr. Temple, was unanimously adopted, setting forth that the Republican party was on its death bed, and Dr. Temple, when interviewed regarding this resolution, stated that there would be no amalgamation of the two parties in Pennsylvania, regardless of what the Republican National committee, then in session, would do as to future representation in national conventions.

His whole course, by numerous public speeches, has been to abuse, and if possible, to destroy the Republican party.

Why, then, does he desire to carry the banner of the Republican party? Can it be that he has taken cognizance of the increased Republican registration, and the greatly diminished registration of the Washington party, the party he belongs to and gives his allegiance? Is it office he wants instead of standing for principle? Does he want the Republican party to nominate and elect him, so that he will be in a better position to stab it in the back? These are questions for the Republicans of the Twenty-fourth district to think about and decide at the primaries on May 19, 1914.

You have a candidate whose loyalty to the party is unquestioned, his ability unsurpassed, and his experience in public affairs qualifies him to represent this important district in the manner it should be represented. This candidate is Ex-Lieut. Governor Wm. M. Brown of New Castle, Pa. Nominate him and the party will have a friend as a standard bearer, not an enemy; a staunch supporter and defender, not a traitor and traducer.

Decides Many Cases in Favor of the People

THEY WANT TO REWARD HIM

Hundreds of Citizens Throughout the State Have in Favor of Eminent Jurist—Attention Called to Features of New Primary Law Relating to the Separate Non-Partisan Ballot, to Which Every Voter is Entitled. Vastly Enrolled in a Political Party or Not.

That the candidacy of the Hon. Robert S. Frazer, Presiding Judge of the consolidated courts of Allegheny County, for the non-partisan nomination for Justice of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court is attracting widespread attention throughout the entire state, is evidenced by the hundreds of letters from prominent citizens offering support received by the Lawyers' Committee which is managing the campaign.

HON. ROBERT S. FRAZER

Judge Frazer's name goes before the people of the entire state on the non-partisan ballot at the primaries, Tuesday, May 19. This is the first open primary election for Justice of the Supreme Court in Pennsylvania and attention is being called to the fact that votes will be cast for Justice of the Supreme Court and Judge of the Superior Court on a separate non-partisan ballot and that a voter need not have been enrolled in a political party to obtain and vote a non-partisan ballot.

The bar of Allegheny County is a unit behind Judge Frazer's candidacy and a hundred lawyers have organized themselves under the title of Lawyers' Committee to assume personal charge of the campaign. This committee is made up as follows: George E. Alter, Willis F. McCook, Paul S. Ache, Charles H. McKee, James L. Adams, E. J. McKenna, George W. Allen, Thos. M. Marshall, John C. Bane, Eugene S. Mackey, Clarence Burleigh, M. H. Murphy, William R. Blair, W. L. McConegley, Wm. A. Blakeley, Harry J. Nesbit, Wm. J. Brennan, W. E. Newlin, John D. Brown, A. M. Nepper, Geo. C. Burgwin, J. B. Orr, J. Francis Burke, Frank C. Osburn, Thomas S. Brown, S. G. Porter, J. McF. Carpenter, D. F. Patterson, E. G. Chalfant, Chas. F. Patterson, E. M. Cancelliere, Thos. Patterson, Geo. J. Campbell, L. E. Plumer, Thos. D. Chandler, L. K. Porter, J. E. B. Cunningham, A. Pekarski, E. P. Doughlass, George H. Quall, C. W. Dahlinger, Wm. B. Rodgers, Wm. S. Dalzell, James H. Reed, Harry Diamond, John S. Robb, Jr., William D. Evans, Harry H. Rowand, Charles A. Fagan, Jas. R. Sterrett, John M. Goehring, R. B. Scandrett, E. C. Gerwig, Fred W. Scott, Geo. B. Gordon, E. B. Scull, Wm. A. Griffith, W. K. Shiras, E. O. Golden, John C. Slack, Alex. Gilman, Edwin W. Smith, William M. Hall, George H. Stengel, Harvey Henderson, W. W. Stoner, M. Imbrie, William A. Stone, R. H. Jackson, A. C. Stein, John H. Jordan, Joseph Stadfeld, Chas. H. Kline, Frank R. Steward, Wm. B. Kirker, Cornelius D. Scully, Edward J. Kent, Harry G. Taker, Jas. W. Kinnear, W. H. S. Thomson, Jos. A. Langfitt, Wm. T. Tredway, Thos. C. Lazear, Edward B. Vaill, Walter Lyon, A. V. D. Watterson, Wm. A. Magee, Jas. A. Wakefield, Frank C. McGirr, D. T. Watson, Geo. P. Murray, Geo. R. Wallace, James G. Marks, John S. Weller, Rody P. Marshall, A. D. Wilkin, George C. Wilson.

Judge Frazer himself is not making a personal campaign but is busily engaged with his duties on the bench. His only activity in his own behalf being the answering of the many letters received by personal friends and supporters throughout the state.

Judges and lawyers of many counties, irrespective of party affiliations, endorsed Judge Frazer when they learned of the unanimous action of the Allegheny County Bar. All refer to his pre-eminent learning in law, his legal and judicial mind and his fearless and impartial judgment. Those counties in which the lawyers already have taken practically unanimous action in commending him to the voters of the State are Allegheny, Armstrong, Beaver, Bedford, Blair, Butler, Cambria, Fayette, Greene, Jefferson, Somerset, Washington and Westmoreland counties, while in many other counties a large number of attorneys have endorsed his candidacy and tendered him their support.

Mrs. Rowe. 1005 McKean Ave., Charleroi, Pa., says: "For some time one of the family thought he had rheumatism. He suffered from severe pains in his back and limbs and found it hard to stoop to put on his shoes. Every fall and winter he was bothered. He finally got Doan's Kidney Pills from Piper's Pharmacy and began taking them. In a short time he felt much better. I used this remedy some years ago and know that it lives up to the claims made for it." Confirmed Proof.

DR. DIXON TELLS SOMETHING ABOUT HEALTH AT WELLS

Dr. Samuel G. Dixon, state commissioner of health in his little talks on health and hygiene treats of dangerous wells and springs as follows:

"It is indeed a modest property owner who will not boast of his well. The coolness, clearness and general excellence of their water supply is a favorite topic of conversation with thousands of people.

"One half of our eight million Pennsylvanians depend upon wells or springs for their water supply and from now on for the next four or five months the other half of our citizens on their vacation trips or half holidays in the country will find themselves depending upon water from these sources.

"When investigations are made by sanitary experts the water of many of these wells and springs has time and again shown pollution, which means that they are positively dangerous for human consumption. Unfortunately water may appear clear and be agreeable in taste when it contains sewage organisms which may cause typhoid fever or dysentery when taken into the system. Much of our rural typhoid is due to polluted wells and springs.

"No well should be located near a cesspool, privy or barn-yard where the drainage from these places can reach directly or indirectly by seepage through the water bearing strata. In a limestone country there is particular danger of sewage or animal wastes which find their way through fissures in the rock and may re-appear many miles away in some subterranean stream which serves as a water supply.

"Open wells are particularly liable to pollution and all wells should be carefully walled and covered to prevent surface and direct drainage from contaminating them. The close proximity of possible sources of pollution should be sufficient to place any well or spring under suspicion.

"Unfortunately many property owners who strive to keep their houses and grounds in a clean, sanitary condition overlook this vital factor.

"The cost of a water tight stone or cement covering which will deflect drainage from the well or the sinking of a new well in a safe locality is vastly more economical than a single case of typhoid fever."

Each of the 238 schools of the county has been asked to send a delegate.

Speakers will be Rev. Henry Cameron, of Washington, president of the United Temperance league, S. E. Gill, of Pittsburgh, state superintendent of temperance, Mrs. Mary L. Stewart, field secretary of the county Sunday school association, and Rev. W. W. Hunter of Buffalo.

FOLLOWS BROTHER TO GRAVE KNOWING NAUGHT OF DEATH

Mrs. Florence M. Bamford of Monessen, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Lang, who live near Allentown after an illness of eleven weeks is dead. Mrs. Bamford was lying very ill at the time of the death of her brother, Alfred J. Lang, Monday, March 30, of typhoid fever, just six weeks before her death. She passed away without knowing of her brother's death.

Mrs. Bamford was born at Allentown, August 15, 1877. September 29, 1903 she was married to Alfred Bamford of Monessen. She is survived by her husband and one daughter, Ruth, eight years old. She is also survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Lang, by six sisters, Jennie May, the wife of Fred W. Ryland, of Eighty-Four; Anna, the wife of L. J. Goodwin, of Monessen; Della, the wife of J. Warren Crumrine, of Bentleyville; Hattie J. Mary E., and Margaret, still at home. She is survived also by two brothers, Lewis A. Lang, who is married and lives at Bentleyville; Charles C. Lang, at home, also an adopted brother, William Lang Rowleson, of California. Mrs. Bamford was a member of the Baptist church of Monessen. The funeral will be conducted by Rev. Mr. Prosser, of Pittsburgh from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lang at 2 o'clock Wednesday. The interment will be in the Mount Tabor cemetery.

A very sad thing connected with the death of Mrs. Bamford is the fact that her father, Alfred Lang, has been confined to his bed for four weeks. He is a man 75 years of age and an old soldier, wounded in the service, a member of the 4th Massachusetts Volunteer cavalry, Company K. Because of his illness the funeral will be held from the home and not from the church.

GRIPPE PREVALENT

How to Regain Strength After a Severe Attack.

With so much gripe prevalent this winter a few words of advice regarding its cause and treatment will not be out of place.

Gripe is an infectious disease easily taken when the system is in a tired or run-down condition.

The best means of prevention are to keep the blood in a healthy condition, and if the system gets into a weak, run-down condition, take Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic. A lady from Long Branch, N. J., says: "Gripe left me in a nervous, weakened, run-down condition. After taking three bottles of Vinol I am better and stronger than I have been for years, and I cheerfully recommend Vinol to all who have suffered from the gripe and need strength." (Name furnished on request.)

We have never sold in our store such a valuable strength creator and health restorer for the convalescent, the weak and run-down as Vinol, and your money will be returned if it does not do all we claim for it. Piper Bros., Druggists, Charleroi, Pa.

It appears that Mr. Smallwood left his home early in the evening and took the 7:58 train for Brownsville. From there they went to McKeesport meeting Miss Welsh by appointment, and then directly to Cumberland
